

A HISTORIAN TRIES TO UNDERSTAND HIS CENTURY

DEL 14 AL 25 DE JUNY DE 1993

Professor convidat: ERIC HOBSBAWM (London)

PROGRAMA

1. History and contemporary experience. Some intellectual autobiography. How I came to be interested in the main lines of my work.
2. History between objectivity and subjectivity. Its present status and relation to the social sciences. Analysis or prediction ?
3. Marxism and history yesterday and today. An assessment of the materialist conception of history.
4. Forces of production, social institutions, culture, ideas: how are they to be combined ?
5. The place of capitalist in world historical development. The origins of the breakthrough to industrial revolution.
6. The pre-capitalism inheritance of capitalism and its assimilation. How far capitalism depended on it.
7. The common people and the transition to capitalism. Politics before politics and «primitive rebellions».
8. The Nineteenth Century in history.
9. The labour movement and socialism in historical perspective.
10. The «Short Twentieth Century».

Les sessions es faran en anglès, de dilluns a divendres, de 10.30 a 12.30 del matí.

Els assistents han de ser universitaris llicenciats i el nombre de places serà limitat.

El preu de la matrícula és de 10.000 PTA (5.000 PTA pels becaris que ho acreditin).

Inscripcions:

Matins (10-13 hores): despatx de Filosofia, Facultat de Lletres (UdG), Plaça St. Domènec, 9, 17071 Girona.

Tel. (972) 41 80 19. El pagament es farà per transferència al núm. 3300.105.000017.6 de Caixa de Girona.